

Rosina Lippi
The Pajama Girls of Lambert Square
368 pages, $24.95
Putnam Adult (February 14, 2008)
ISBN-10: 0399154663
ISBN-13: 978-0399154669

Discussion Questions

1. Are there any towns you know that remind you of Lamb's Corner? What things would you like (or dislike) about living in a town like it?
2. Have you ever worked in a retail position? How would you like to work at Lambert Square, and in what shop?
3. Which of the Lambert Square folks would you like to have a meal with, and why?
4. How has Dodge's relationship with his father influenced him over the course of his life? Is there a connection to his claustrophobia, and if so, how?
5. Why did Julia leave Chicago so abruptly? Was there any reason for her to stay?
6. Julia claims that she has a good and fulfilling life and there's nothing wrong with her. Dodge wonders sometimes if she's right. Is she?
7. Why is Mayme so distrustful of Nils? What is it about him that she likes?
8. How does Dodge's training as a psychotherapist make him better at the work he does now?
9. Julia surprises herself by driving to Brooklyn on the spur of the moment. Why is this suddenly possible for her?
10. Where do you think Dodge and Julia will end up?